March, April, and May 2008

Mission Statement

To provide individuals with dance education, training and performing opportunities, thereby enhancing the cultural awareness of the community.

Please check out our website!

We plan to use our website to communicate with students and parents. The site includes information on upcoming FADC events, photos, and a calendar along with many other pages.

Reminder: Please make sure that your tuition payments are up to date and costume fees have been paid.

Attention Adults

Want to dance your way to fitness?

Classes are being scheduled for adults in ballet, hip-hop, tapercize, & ballroom. For more information, adult class schedules are available at the studio.

Please Take Note of the upcoming events at FADC

Turn to Page 3 now for details >>>

FADC and Shiloh Productions are now working together! This relationship will open up performance opportunities for our dancers to be on stage in Shiloh productions. Keep your eye out for audition dates for upcoming shows.

We are happy to announce our affiliation with Martin County Continuing Education Program as we will provide the site for Adult Tap & Ballroom starting April 8th, 2008.

FADC has joined with YMCA Sportsworld. We now offer Ballet for Gymnasts.

FADC Company

The FADC Company is now in it's second year! Students are currently working on the major roles of Coppelia. Ms. Loretta is pushing the company's limits of technique during class every Saturday. The younger Company dancers are excited to work with older dancers and are developing new friendships because of this experience! Company members have recently performed at Barnes & Noble, the White Dove Kick Off, and for a luncheon at the Conquistador. The Company also had the opportunity to work with Todd Hall formerly with the Boston Ballet and Caroll Dodd formerly of the New York City Ballet and the Dance Theatre of North Carolina while Loretta was in recovery from her surgery. Congratulations to senior company member Kaley Jones on her offer of an apprenticeship with Ballet Florida and placement in the Boston Ballet's year long pre-professional program! FADC also congratulates company member, Kara Haggerty, who has been accepted into Orlando Ballet's five week Summer Intensive program and Angela Leone, a former FADC company member, who has been offered a position with the Sarasota Ballet.

Barnes & Noble Bookstore hosted a fundraiser For FADC Programs

Barnes & Noble hosted FADC Creative Arts Fair on March 15th, 2008. This fun filled day put our dancers and supporters in the spotlight! The morning was jam packed with dance performances showcasing upcoming shows and the talent of our wonderful students. The afternoon into the evening had workshops that captivated the customers transforming Barnes & Noble into an artist's community. We want to thank our supporters including Dawn Dettmer from Spirit Soul Spa Aromatherapy, Jodi Hirth with her fun! fun! fun! Music Together, Pat Alton our extra creative face painter, Patti Spina who offered relaxing chair massages, Flautist Shaxya D. Fernandez, The Treasure Coast High School Theatre Department who volunteered their time being exquisite statues, Friends Choir under the direction of Connie Dahn, Sandra Price who offered a dynamic drum workshop, GRACE YOGA who offered family yoga, Dr. Richard Powers who discussed healthcare today, Chef Pascale who presented the history of chocolate, Sandra Bryan who got us pumped up with ZUMBA, Burcin Gursel who shared the latest makeup trends, Bob Murray and Kathryn Wong wowed us with their Tango demonstration, Jim Henderson who taught Ballroom Dancing, Theatre Now's improv show and Shiloh Theatrical Productions presentation of highlights from South Pacific. We are so grateful for their generous time and creative energy! Our wonderful Creative Arts T-Shirts were donated by the Law Office of Mark Rodgers P.A. Thanks to all of our volunteers for keeping the day running smoothly and representing FADC well in our community. This incredible event was quite a success!

Because of making new connections through our Barnes & Noble Event one of our supporters, Sandra Bryan will be offering "ZUMBA" a high energy Latin workout on Sunday, April 27th from 2-3PM for $10.00 at the FADC studio. This exciting and energetic class will have you dancing and shake you to your very core.

BOARD MEMBER UPDATE

The FADC Board of Directors is pleased to welcome Elizabeth D. Alcalde and Beverly Mauermann as their newest members. Elizabeth is a Stuart native who attended the University of Florida for her undergraduate degree. She also attended Harvard Law School in Cambridge, Massachusetts where she was Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the Harvard Negotiation Law Review and a teaching assistant for Harvard Negotiation and Mediation Courses. She now works for Akerman Senterfitt in West Palm Beach where she serves as the firm's lead attorney in the area of health and welfare benefits.

Beverly Mauermann grew up in Fairfield, Connecticut where she attended the University of Connecticut and received her B.A. She has taught English and History in Attleboro, Massachusetts for 33 years. Beverly also consulted for the state of Massachusetts for writing and evaluating the MCAS tests. The past year she has served on the Paws and Claws Committee for the Humane Society of Martin County. Welcome to FADC Elizabeth and Beverly!

FADC IN THE COMMUNITY

- Our newest class Modern Repertory performed at Jump at De Sun, a dance & theatre event inspired by the life of Zora Neale Hurston at Treasure Coast High School on March 21st. They will present their dance again at the Treasure Coast Music Showcase on March 28th, 7pm at Club Med. FADC Modern Repertory and the Senior Jazz Company have been invited to perform in a Shiloh Production of Broadway To Hollywood from May 21st to the 25th at the Lyric Theatre.
- To kick off National Dance week, a grant from Women Supporting the Arts will give the following studios, Florida Arts & Dance Company, Mo's Danceworks, Dance Academy of Stuart and CBPH Productions the opportunity to collaborate to present a collection of their Company's Best. It will showcase a range of skilled dancers who are coming together for the first time to share their artistic vision and strengthen the bonds of our artistic community. Please join us for this free event at 5:00 PM on Saturday, April 26th at the Blake Library.

UPDATE ON OUTREACH

Florida Arts & Dance Co. continues to reach the community through a variety of outreach programs. FADC continues to teach outreach classes for Parks & Recreation and the Boys & Girl's Club of Martin County. Children from these programs will be performing in our end of the year performance on June 8th at Martin County High School.

- The ARC of St. Lucie presents it's 9th Annual Gala Event "The History of Music" at The Sunrise Theatre on April 4th, 2008 at 7:00 pm. Tickets are now on sale for $35.00 at www.sunrisetheatre.com or call the box office (772) 461-4884.
